

Andrew Nguyen

TORONTO, ONTARIO

info@andrewnguyen.ca
(314) 736-8248
@onlyandrewn

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT AND WORKSHOPS

Asian American Journalists Association

March 2025 – August 2025

Served as an editor for the VOICES program overseeing 12 fellows and worked with the cohort to refine their feature-length stories.

Developed curriculum and spoke about how to produce data-driven stories and interactive graphics. Edited pieces on criminal justice and immigration.

IRE Data Journalism Bootcamp

August 2020

Learned about cleaning, analyzing and acquiring data, Excel formulas, pivot tables, working with SQL and how to bulletproof your work.

Online News Association

March 2017 – July 2019 | St. Louis, MO

Served as an ONA St. Louis co-organizer, hosted monthly meetups and developed programming for more than 150 people in the region.

Selected as a member of a 14-person advisory group of newsroom leaders about technology and local journalism.

Asian American Journalists Association

April 2019 | New York City, NY

One of 26 journalists selected for AAJA's executive leadership program, which focused on personal and professional development. Explored topics from leadership styles to diversity and culture.

Journalist + Developer

WORK EXPERIENCE

Newsroom Developer | August 2020 – Present

Boston Globe, Boston, MA

Worked on the Boston Globe's six-part series "Future-proofing the Presidency," which was a Pulitzer Prize finalist, as well as the launch of "The Emancipator," a reimagining of the first abolitionist newspaper in the United States.

Contributed to the paper's three-part series "Inside the War on Harvard" about the Trump administration's attack on higher education and "Beyond the Gilded Gate" from the Spotlight team about Massachusetts' housing crisis.

Created various apps, automated scrapers and interactive graphics, including a monthly rent tracker. Received training in digital accessibility and inclusive design from Perkins Access.

Newsroom Developer | August 2016 – July 2020

St. Louis Post-Dispatch, St. Louis, MO

Won company-wide Lee Enterprise President's Award for innovation in digital audience for work on the paper's interactive school guide and salaries database built in Django, which cumulatively garnered roughly 7 million pageviews.

Created the longform template for "Stolen Future," the paper's six-part series on Alzheimer's and dementia, which received three awards from the Missouri Press Association for community service, multimedia reporting and news or feature series.

Awarded a $5000 grant from ONA and was one of 16 fellows chosen as part of their inaugural journalism mentorship collaborative. Managed a team responsible for reinvigorating the paper's mentorship program with more than 85% of the program's participants rating their overall experience a 4 out of 5 or higher.

Newsroom Developer | January 2015 – August 2016

The Brandon Sun, Brandon, MB

Contributed to the EPPY Award-winning projects "Breaking Faith" and "Knights of D-Day," which was also a finalist for a Canadian Association of Journalists award.

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

Columbia University | June 2022 – August 2022

Lede data journalism program

University of King's College | July 2015

Juno College of Technology | September 2014 – November 2014

Carleton University | September 2008 – April 2012